BUSINESS TROUBLES.

Cabarranment of a Big Western Mortgag Co.—Attachment Against Colgate Baker The Westeru Farm Mortgage Trust Company which has become embarrassed at Denver, has an office at 40 Wall street, where Wm. J. Pratt has acted as manager for several years. Dep-uty Sheriff Mulvaney a few days ago received an execution against the company for $25,765 in favor of the Western National Pank on m ravor of the western National Pank on promissory notes of the San Luis Land and Water Company which the trust company had endorsed. When the depu-ty sheriff went to make the levy Mr. Pratt declared that the trust company had no property whatever in New York county, and that the office furniture and fixtures belonged to him. The summons in the suit on which the judgment was obtained was served on M. V. B. Bull as President of the company at Albany, where there was a branch office. There are other branch offices at Boston, Philadelphia, and Seattle, the headquarters being at Denver. The company latterly had been working in Washington and Oregon. When the business was started in 1890 the business was principally confined to Kansas farm mortgages.

The concern was originally a partnership, and was incorporated at Lawrence, Kan. in November. 1887, with a capital stock of $1,000,000, which was increased to $3,000,000 in 1888, and $1,500,000, it was declared, was paid in. Eastern stockholders have been clamorous for some time past, as the dividends were passed last year, but the official sectare that the company had changed the plan of paying interest, and would not pay it until the interest on the mortages had been collected. Last fall the company issued a statement of its condition on June 30 which put the assets wt. $4,273,338 and the liabilities at $2,538,817, exclusive of capital stock $1,500,000, find surplus and undivided profits, $233,821. The largest liabilities were $1,402,993 for debentures certified, $548,111 bills payable, and $379,078 individual deposits. The assets included real estate securities, $1,379,833, mortgages deposited as security for debentures, $1,723,328, municipal and other stocks and bonds, $48,974.

An attachment has been granted against Colgate Daker, the tea merchant of Kohe, Japan, who is reported to have failed there and to have returned to the United States. It is for $34,640 in favor of the Eppens Smith & Wieman Company of this city, for balancedue by Baker on sales of goods to the amount of $468,787 consigned by the company to him Nov. I, 1890, to Jan. I, 1892, Baker was to sell the goods on 4 per cent, commission, which amounted to $181,183. The company says that it has paid out on drafts of Baker's $34,046 too much, and the return of that amount has been demanded. Mr. Baker has done business since 1874 under the style of Colgate Baker, the Company of day for the street.

The Sheriff has taken possession of the street. The concern was originally a partnership.

his city by Clinton G. Baker at 124 Front threet.

The Sheriff has taken possession of the store of Wm. H. Cummings, dealer in scrap rubber at 288 and 280 Washington street, on an strachment for $11,000 in favor of the E. Read Goodridge Manufacturing Company of Newport. R. L., on the ground of wrongful conversions of personal property. The company alleges that between Bept. 1, 1890, and Aug. 1, 1891, it was robbed of 10,000 pounds of rubber thread, valued at $11,000, which it is claimed. Mr. Cummings bought for $2,000. It was alleged that John O'Brien stole the stuff and delivered it to Edward F. Hughes and Abraham Pugsley at Newport, who shipped it to Cummings.

Pugaley at Newport, who simpped it to Culmings.

James Woodhead, manufacturer of shawls at Philadelphia, filed an assignment in this city yesterday to John S. Rosenthal. He has been in business about three years.

J. M. Bacon & Co., coal dealers, of 654 Kent avenue, Williamsburgh, with yards at 1,230 Bedford avenue, at 115 Lexington avenue, and at Beid and DeKalh avenues, Brooklyn, made an assignment yesterday to Welcome S. Jarvia. The liabilities are given as $90,000, and the assets as $115,000.

FALL RIVER Feb. 6.—The "sweating shop" evil was found in full blast here to-day among the recently arrived Bussian Jews. The dis-covery was accidental. A child of one of the immigrants died a day or two ago and was buried without the rules of the Board of Health being observed. Medical Examiner Dolan was notified of the case, which had some Dolan was notified of the case, which had some air of mystery about it. In his search for the child's parents he found the "sweating abop." In a small apartment devoted to cooking and sleeping, and also used as a workshop he found about fifteen persons of all ages and both sexes engaged in manufacturing garments. The surroundings were the most wystehed and the sanitary conditions of the worst. He was informed that these people were working for a New York contractor. There were no sleeping accommodations visible, and inquiry elicited the fact that all hands used the floor of the room for a couch. It is supposed that these people have been sent from New York to evade the detection of the labor people, who, have opened war on the sweating establishments in that city.

The long-pending suit of Mrs. Mary Edna Smith of Brooklyn against Mrs. C. A. Brad-hurst of 48 East Twenty-eighth street, New York, for $100,000 for the alleged alienation of the affections of her husband, W. V. brought to trial, all the papers having been withdrawn in the case. The counsel in the case have refused to give the terms of settlement. Mr. Smith left his wife two years ago, when the family were living in Garden place. Brooklyn. It is alleged that after his departure his wife discovered a bundle of letters written to him by Mrs. Bradhurst, but Mrs. Bradhurst denied this. The incident has not disturbed the harmonious domestic relations of Mr. Bradhurst and his wife.

Baroon, Me., Feb. 6.—Mrs. Eliza Cummings of Eddington has made a charge of abduction against a neighbor, Mrs. Ireson. The wealthy proprietor of a big hotel at one of the shore resorts wanted to adopted Mrs. Cummings's resorts wanted to adopted Mrs. Cummings's 13-year-old daughter, and asked Mrs. Ireson to speak with the mother about it. This fact resched the mother's ears, but she says Mrs. Ireson did not approach her on the subject. Beveral days ago however, the little girl disappeared, and the mother has been unable to find any slue to her whereabouts. She therefore accuses Mrs. Ireson of abducting the girl, and the case has been laid before the Grand Jury.

Mr. Matthias Simonic Blows Out the Gas. Matthias Simonic, 45 years old, arrived in Hoboken from Colorado on Friday, intending Hoboken from Colorado on Friday, intending so go to Rotterdam on the steamer Werken-dam, which sailed yesterday. He got a night's lodging in Mrs. Ruess's boarding house, 13 Second street. Yesterday morning he was found unconscious in his bed. He had blown out the gas. He had partly recovered con-sciousness last night, but was still in a critical condition in St. Mary's Hospital.

Surgiars Furnished the Wife with Evidence

Dedham is attracting a great deal of attention on account of the prominence of the libellant, Dr. Charles A. Bemis, who is a medical exam-iner for a large district in Norfolk county. He iner for a large district in Norfolk county. He is accused of adultery with a pretty Medway schoolmarm, and the wife's accusation is based on the contents of thirty letters which Dr. Bemis had received from the young lady. The manner in which the wife got possession of the letters is perhaps without precedent of the property of the letters is perhaps without precedent of the letters in the property of the letters is perhaps without precedent of the letters in the property of the Dr. Bemis had received from the young lady. The manner in which the wife got possession of the letters is perhaps without precedent. One night a burgiar entered their dwelling and ransacked the lower part of the house, breaking open a desk in which the Doctor kept his private and professional rapers. On the morning after the burgiary was discovered the Doctor went out to notify the police. During his absence Mrs. Bemis looked into the desk and found the large bundle of love letters which were introduced in court as evidence in her behalf and which led her to bring the action for a divorce.
